

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

FRYSC Annual Victory Over Violence Conference

July 15-17, 2019 Northern Kentucky Convention Center, Covington

A limited number of workshops will be available for individuals and groups interested in presenting a workshop during the Victory Over Violence Conference. Priority will be given to proposals that focus on:

Violence Prevention: Specific areas of interest include self-injury, eating disorders, bullying, cyber bullying, gang activity, grief counseling for children and working with children of incarcerated parents.

Social and Emotional Development: The whole child approach to education; addressing physical, social and emotional development; emotional intelligence in after-school programs; social and emotional skills and the link to school achievement.

Schools and Communities: Service learning and community engagement; social responsibility and school achievement; the school as a community center; strategies and activities for engaging and involving families; addressing the needs of diverse communities; the community school and rural America; the school as the community's resource; working with community-based agencies; using the school after hours; strengthening school-family-community collaborations; strategies and activities for service provider self-care.

General Information:

- Concurrent workshops are 75 minutes in duration.
- Seating is typically classroom or theater style, unless other arrangements are requested in advance and approved by the DFRYSC Training Specialist.
- Audio/visual requests made on the day of the conference cannot be honored.
- Conference sessions are professional development opportunities and may not incorporate sales presentations.
- Only lead presenters will be contacted. Lead presenters are responsible for coordinating with any co-presenters.
- Because of the limited number of sessions to be offered and the need for a balanced program, we may suggest modifications to proposed workshops.

If you have questions about the conference or submitting a proposal, please contact:
